Kristin I like keyhole-as-person here. Not sure about all-caps
17 hours ago

Jolie #1 choice. Best visual representation of topic and medium.
17 hours ago

Dede Hourican I like the image on this one as well. It's my #2 pick.

Anthony Whyte Boring

Ian Dolphin like the type, image not as strong/learner focussed as first
3 hours, 17 minutes ago

Noah Botimer This one underscores the need to discuss the issues. It looks the easiest to animate w/a little kinetic text; say pop in the privacy bit, then slide .org in from somewhere. Add a couple sound effects, woosh, bloop, ding.

Kristin This is nice overall, but I'm not a fan of the font - looks a bit dated
17 hours ago

Dede Hourican This is not in my top three
15 hours ago

Anthony Whyte Better, but put LEARNER PRIVACY on single line, with .org underneath, right justified
13 hours ago

Ian Dolphin Like the image, typeface not the clearest
3 hours, 17 minutes ago

Noah Botimer Looks like student-as-cyborg. Nope.

Kristin This one's pretty good
17 hours ago

Jolie #2 choice
17 hours ago

LauraG nope
16 hours ago

Dede Hourican This is my number one pick. The shield and check mark is great. I like the font as well. Clean and slick.
15 hours ago

Anthony Whyte swushy, nah
13 hours ago

Ian Dolphin Strong, people centered image. Prefer type from second logo
3 hours, 17 minutes ago

Noah Botimer Feels bland and impersonal.

Kristin This looks more like a cybersecurity logo - not friendly enough for who you are
17 hours ago

LauraG 2, I like the dark shield but the student as a keyhole
16 hours ago

Dede Hourican The keyhole and person together makes me think of personal privacy. (These are all so good!)
15 hours ago

Anthony Whyte Boring
13 hours ago

Ian Dolphin Image strong, typeface/spacing not the most legible
3 hours, 17 minutes ago

Noah Botimer On first look, this was my favorite. It looks the most like a brand to me.... but if there is no "product", I'm not sure how much "strength" the branding needs. I'm also a little unsure of the clarity of the person-lock visual message.

Kristin Like this one for its clean design, but there are a lot of ed tech companies with very similar logos. I like the emphasis on PEOPLE rather than PAPERS in other designs

LauraG nope
16 hours ago

Dede Hourican It took me a while to see the book pages on this one but I like it. It's #3 for me.
15 hours ago

Anthony Whyte Boring
13 hours ago

Ian Dolphin Strong image, clean typeface. Does the book suggest resources rather than people?
3 hours, 17 minutes ago

Noah Botimer One second look, not into this one. The wordmark is weird and the book is impersonal.

Kristin This one is too generic (and looks the least custom)

17 hours ago

Dede Hourican This is pretty but.. a wee bit scary. It might be a great logo for hacker ideas.

15 hours ago

Anthony Whyte Took me a couple looks to notice the serpent--still, it resembles a lightbulb and I don't get what the image is trying to express. Like the logo color.

13 hours ago

Ian Dolphin Maybe too threatening? Negative messaging

Noah Botimer More of a video game bad-guy organization logo. Nope.
